Cub Scout Resident & Adventure Camp

Overnight Cub Scout Resident Camp is held during the months of June and July. There are two camping opportunities to choose from – regular Cub Resident Camp, which consists of six days and five nights and runs Sunday through Friday; and Cub Adventure Camp, which consists of three days and two nights and runs Sunday through Tuesday. Each Pack must decide which week they would like to attend. Packs should reserve their campsite early to avoid disappointment.

The Pack attends camp as a group and reserves one or more campsites for their needs. The Scouts sleep in a large canvas camp tent – two Scouts to a tent – on a sturdy canvas army-style cot that rests on a raised, wooden platform. The canvas tent covers the two cots and the platform. The tent has flaps that can be tied shut at night and opened during the day. The cots and tents are provided by the camp.

Each campsite is equipped with a picnic table and a dining fly. Each campsite also has a campfire ring to be used at the discretion of the Pack's leadership. The Pack uses this campsite as a base camp in-between activities and meals. The camp provides three hot meals a day, plus evening activities. The program is very structured. The pack is able to spend time in their campsite around the campfire before retiring for the evening. Showers are available for campers and adult leaders; as is a camp Trading Post – for the purchase of snacks and/or Scout "stuff".

Activities at Resident Camp include BB gun and archery instruction and shooting, crafts, nature, games, swimming and Scout Skills, to name a few – also special activities – unique to each year's theme. Special activities just for Webelos at the end of the week include tubing on the Lehigh River and a special hike and overnight outpost. A leader's meeting will take place before camp starts. Schedules, maps and all information are distributed to your Pack's leaders at this meeting. If you are not sure about spending a whole week at Resident Camp, you may want to start with the three-day Adventure Camp instead.

Parents attend as camp leaders, basically acting as chaperones. You are not responsible for planning or carrying out the daily program – only making sure your Cub Scouts get from one program area to the next in a timely manner, that they stay together and have F-U-N!

Cub Scout Resident Camp and three-day Adventure Camp are a GREAT bonding experience for your pack and a growing experience for both Cub Scouts AND leaders (parents) who attend. Don't hesitate to come and have fun with your Scouts. It's a decision you will never regret!

Note: Resident Camp and Adventure Camp Take place at our Cub Scout camp, Camp Acahela, In Blakeslee, PA – off Route 115 South
