

Railroading Merit Badge Workshop

Earn Your Railroading Merit Badge

Join Steamtown National Historic Site (NHS) for a merit badge workshop. Scouts and leaders will work with Park Rangers and Volunteers in classes, practical experience and onboard a train as we introduce the history, economics and safety of railroading.

This Merit Badge Workshop, along with completed prerequisites, satisfies the BSA requirements to earn the Railroading Merit Badge.

This workshop takes place on Sunday, August 13, 2017. All participants should arrive at Steamtown NHS not later than 9:30am.

How Much Does It Cost

The Steamtown NHS Park Entrance Fee is $7.00 for visitors ages 16 years and older; under 16 years are free. The Gouldsboro train excursion is required for merit badge workshop participants, with a cost for Adults (16-61) $34.00; Seniors 62 and older $29.00, Children 6 to 15 $22.00, and under 6 years free. Entrance fee is included in the excursion price.

How Do I Participate?

All scout leaders need to pre-register their units by phone or email in order to participate. Space is limited, so please contact us as soon as possible. Call Ken Ganz (570)340-5240 or Lori Staely (570)340-5195 or email Kenny_Ganz@nps.gov or Lori_Staely@nps.gov to reserve your spot in this exciting activity.

What Else Do I Need?

You may bring your lunch or purchase lunch at the Gouldsboro station. Carry a bottle of water and dress appropriately for the weather as much of this program occurs outdoors.

Please note: Scout leaders must accompany scouts at all times.
